

Government of South Australia

Department for Energy and Mining

Dear [REDACTED]

I am writing in relation to your application made under the Freedom of Information Act 1991 (FOI Act) in which you requested access to the following:

Under the provisions of the Freedom Of Information act I would like to request your help in finding the names of:

- 1. The name of the company who hired/employed the Australian workers aboard the Danwood Ice drill ship that drilled two exploratory oil wells in the Great Australian Bight off Streaky Bay in 1980 and ;-*
- 2. The name of their workers compensation insurance company.*

In accordance with Premier and Cabinet Circular PC045, if you are given access to documents as a result of this FOI application, details of your application, and the documents to which access is given, may be published in the agency's disclosure log. A copy of PC045 can be found at <http://dpc.sa.gov.au/what-we-do/services-for-government/premier-and-cabinet-circulars>.

A search has been conducted and no documents were discovered that fall within the scope of your application. There are however, a number of publicly available documents available that might assist you with your search via SARIG (the South Australian Resource Information Geoserver. A link has been provided to you via email.

Appeal Rights

If you are dissatisfied with this decision, you are entitled to exercise your rights of review and appeal as outlined in the attached documentation.

Should you have any enquiries in relation to this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me via email DEM.FOI@sa.gov.au.

Yours sincerely
