Submission details

Issue	Ground water pollution
Reference and page number (if known)
Comment	Many agricultural businesses rely on the supply of clean groundwater
Issue	Damaging the reputation of the Adelaide Hills as an environmentally conscious and sustainable region.
Reference and page number (if known)
Comment	Mining will negate any effort to increase the reputation of Adelaide Hills as a clean, green destination in perpetuity
Issue	Damaging local agriculture, particularly vineyards and wine businesses
Reference and page number (if known)
Comment	Smells, Dust, and any Emissions could damage the delicate microclimate of vineyards neighbouring the mine property
Issue	Damaging the local tourism industry
Reference and page number (if known)
Comment	By ruining the reputation of local businesses as desirable locations to visit, Adelaide Hills tourism could be severely impacted, affecting local residents and businesses
Issue	Noise

Reference and page number (if known)
Comment	Noise alone could dissuade visitors, and impact local residents well-being and quality of life
Issue	Air pollution
Reference and page number (if known)
Comment	Air pollution has a significant impact on the quality of grapes and other agriculture grown in the region
Additional comments	I think it is irresponsible to encourage an industry that damages so many surrounding long term sustainable businesses that substantially support the local Adelaide Hills community and South Australia as a destination.
