Dear [REDACTED]

I am writing in relation to your application made under the Freedom of Information Act 1991 (FOI Act) in which you requested access to the following documents:

I am seeking an historical Certificate of Compliance for electrical work done on my property by my ex-spouse, who was occupying the property ([REDACTED]) prior to settlement of the property on the 24/03/2023, at which time the title of the property was transferred from our joint names ([REDACTED]) to my sole name ([REDACTED]). I believe electrical work was undertaken on our property in the month/s leading up to settlement, including (but possibly not limited to) the removal of a pyrolytic electric oven and installation of a second-hand electric oven. The work may have been undertaken by an electrician who trades as [REDACTED] and may have either both my and my ex-spouses names on the form (as joint property owners) or just my ex-spouse, at whose request the work would have been undertaken (it was not undertaken with my consent). Documents 'From' date: 1/04/2022, 'To' date: 20/04/2023.

In accordance with Premier and Cabinet Circular PC045, if you are given access to documents as a result of this FOI application, details of your application, and the documents to which access is given, may be published in the agency's disclosure log. A copy of PC045 can be found at <http://dpc.sa.gov.au/what-we-do/services-for-government/premier-and-cabinet-circulars>.

A search has been conducted and one (1) document was discovered that falls within the scope of your application. The document is identified in the attached schedule. In respect of the document, I have determined as follows:

Document 1

I have determined that this document should be released in part.

With regard to this document, the part to which I have not granted you access is the home address of a third party.

Under Clause 6(1) of Schedule 1 to the FOI Act, a document is an exempt document if its disclosure would involve the 'unreasonable disclosure of information concerning the personal affairs of any person'. This information falls within the definition of personal affairs under the FOI Act and is therefore exempt from release pursuant to Clause 6(1).

Exemptions

For your information, the following exemption applies from the FOI Act:

Clause 6 – Documents affecting personal affairs

(1) A document is an exempt document if it contains matter the disclosure of which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of information concerning the personal affairs of any person (living or dead).

Appeal Rights

If you are dissatisfied with this decision, you are entitled to exercise your rights of review and appeal as outlined in the attached documentation.

If you have any queries in relation to your application, please contact me via email DEM.FOI@sa.gov.au.

Yours sincerely
