Department for Energy and Mining

Dear [REDACTED]

I am writing in relation to your application made under the Freedom of Information Act 1991 (the FOI Act) in which you requested access to the following:

Specifications and details and the weight of the refractory block that hit me in the back in December 2017. It was the full hanging roof block in the electric furnace at Olympic Da, Roxby Downs, BHP. I was working for Veolia Refractories.

In accordance with Premier and Cabinet Circular PC045, if you are given access to documents as a result of this FOI application, details of your application, and the documents to which access is given, may be published in the agency's disclosure log. A copy of PC045 can be found at <http://dpc.sa.gov.au/what-we-do/services-for-government/premier-and-cabinet-circulars>.

A search has been conducted and no documents were discovered that fall within the scope of your application.

Appeal Rights

If you are dissatisfied with this decision, you are entitled to exercise your rights of review and appeal as outlined in the attached documentation.

If you have any queries in relation to your application, please contact me on [REDACTED] or via email DEM.FOI@sa.gov.au.

Yours sincerely
