Dear Minister,

I am writing to express my vehement opposition to the proposed Bird in Hand gold mine development. I understand that the short-term economic benefits to the region may be considerable, but these supposed benefits are vastly diminished when balanced against the potentially catastrophic and irrecoverable losses in the tourism and primary industries sectors. This development proposal is short-sighted and greedy, and is in clear opposition to the interests of a sustainable Adelaide Hills region. A choice to proceed with this course of action will be reflected upon with by our future selves with horror at our own stupidity.
