

To: DEM Consultation

Thank you for your email seeking feedback on the proposed Electricity (General) (Planning and Forecasting Function) Amendment Regulations 2023.

The proposed changes would strengthen the role of local expertise for development of SA's electricity grid and potentially achieve improvements over the current arrangements.

The proposed shift to state-based electricity planning and forecasting is supported.

*Submitted by Jodie O'Hara, Department for Education, Education Support Hub
13 December 2023*