Dear [REDACTED]

I am writing in relation to your application made under the Freedom of Information Act 1991 (FOI Act), transferred to the Department for Energy and Mining from the Office of the Minister for Infrastructure and Transport, Energy and Mining, in which you requested access to the following documents:

*As the owner of the property, I would like a copy of the certificate for electrical work carried out.

On 13 January 2023, you clarified that the scope of your FOI application relates to electrical work carried out at the following address: [REDACTED].

In accordance with Premier and Cabinet Circular PC045, if you are given access to documents as a result of this FOI application, details of your application, and the documents to which access is given, may be published in the agency's disclosure log. A copy of PC045 can be found at <http://dpc.sa.gov.au/what-we-do/services-for-government/premier-and-cabinet-circulars>.

A search has been conducted and one (1) document was discovered that falls within the scope of your application. The document is identified in the attached schedule. In respect of the document, I have determined as follows:

Document 1

I have determined that this document should be released in part.

With regard to this document, the parts to which I have not granted you access are the name, licence number and home address of the contractor.

Under Clause 6(1) of Schedule 1 to the FOI Act, a document is an exempt document if its disclosure would involve the 'unreasonable disclosure of information concerning the personal affairs of any person'. This information falls within the definition of personal affairs under the FOI Act and is therefore exempt from release pursuant to Clause 6(1).

Exemptions

The following exemption applies from the FOI Act:

Clause 6 – Documents affecting personal affairs

(1) A document is an exempt document if it contains matter the disclosure of which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of information concerning the personal affairs of any person (living or dead).

Appeal Rights

If you are dissatisfied with this decision, you are entitled to exercise your rights of review and appeal as outlined in the attached documentation.

If you have any queries in relation to your application, please contact me via email DEM.FOI@sa.gov.au.

Yours sincerely
