

PUBLIC WARNING: UNSAFE ELECTRICAL WORK DONE BY LES DURDIN

Electricity Act 1996, section 62A

If you have had electrical work done by Les Durdin or Durdin Electrical, get it checked by a licensed electrician to make sure it is safe and compliant.

Electrical work in South Australia must be done by a licensed electrician. Mr Durdin has not had an appropriate licence since 2010. The Office of the Technical Regulator (OTR) has audited Mr Durdin's electrical work (e.g. generator installations) and has found it is unsafe and poses a risk to people's safety.

For more information, contact the OTR on (08) 8226 5518. For licensing information, contact Consumer and Business Services on 131 882.
